

Dear Parent(s),

Choosing the right school for your child/children is one of the most important decisions that parents have to make. It is this very task of choosing the right education and school for my child that constitutes the foundation upon which the Modern Montessori education group was built. With this in mind, I take this opportunity to present a brief history of our organisation, which represents over forty years of experience and expertise in Montessori education.

Forty years ago, my daughter, Olivia, was two and a half years old and after endless deliberation and extensive research, my husband and I made the decision to enrol her at a Montessori school in London (U.K) called The Gatehouse Learning Centre. It soon turned out that the time, thought and careful consideration invested in making this decision, was not wasted. We watched in awe as our daughter flourished in every conceivable area (academic, social and emotional), exceeding even our very high expectations. In fact my husband and I were so inspired by and impressed with the teaching and the results that we commissioned the principal of the school, who was trained by Maria Montessori, to design a distance learning course to teach the Montessori method to people all over the world. The first College of Modern Montessori student enrolled at our offices in London in 1981 and since that time, over twelve thousand people from over eighty different countries have enrolled for our distance learning Montessori teacher training course.

In 1991, after having lived in South Africa for a number of years, it was clear to us that the country's provision of early childhood education was distinctly lacking, and we knew that an increased Montessori 'presence' would positively impact South Africa's education system. We moved the Modern Montessori head office to Johannesburg and commenced work towards expanding the scope of our operations to include distance learning and part time and full time lecture-based Montessori training. In 1994, our part time and full time Montessori teacher education programmes were awarded international accreditation from the Montessori Accreditation Council for Teacher Education (MACTE), which is an autonomous, international, non-profit making accreditation agency for Montessori teacher education programmes. The MACTE Commission is based in the United States and is the premier, internationally recognised, standard setting and accrediting body for Montessori teacher education and their accreditation is testimony to an institution's unwavering commitment to the provision of high calibre, superior quality Montessori education.

In 1996, after a seemingly endless search for new premises to house our administration department, lecture facilities and flagship school, we found the perfect property set on five beautiful acres in Linbro Park, Sandton. The school property was originally built by Raymond Ammoretti, acclaimed Italian woodcraftsman. Raymond and his wife, Lorna, had six children and as their family and business grew, they erected more buildings to accommodate their needs. As the Ammoretti children grew and left home, Raymond and Lorna were rattling around on five acres and they decided to sell, and as the property is far too big for most families, it was on the market for some considerable time; however, as soon as we saw it, we knew it would be the perfect property to develop into a school and training centre. It was here that we created a Montessori preschool for children aged three months to six years old, and so, The School of Modern Montessori was borne. After only a few months, parents were so pleased with their children's development that they pressured us to take Montessori teaching into primary level (catering for children aged six to thirteen years old), which we have successfully achieved.

By virtue of the success of our Linbro Park school, we have since expanded Modern Montessori's school division to include two more sites:

- The School of Modern Montessori Gillitts, Durban, Kwa-Zulu Natal (established in 2003).

So, you see, our wealth experience of excellence in Montessori education is the foundation upon which each of the Modern Montessori schools were built and developed. Each school is the perfect combination of:

- established and credible education provider, rich in history and tradition, boasting considerable years of experience in education;
- well-equipped classroom and outdoor facilities nested in a secure and picturesque environment providing beautiful and safe surroundings in which your child will grow, learn and play;
- well-trained, experienced, dedicated and caring teachers and care-givers, whose professional expertise, commitment to education and passion for children, you will depend on firstly, to provide your child with the best possible academic and developmental foundation in which to reach his/her full potential, and on which his/her future learning will be based; and secondly (and equally important) to provide a loving and nurturing environment, in which your child's/children's happiness is of paramount importance.
- low teacher to child instruction ratios that afford your child/children the individual attention they so richly deserve;
- an all-inclusive education, extra-mural and supervisory solution. For working parents, it is especially important that their child's/children's school offers not only an academic education, but also meals, extra-curricular activities, aftercare, and holiday programmes.

I thank you for your interest expressed in The School of Modern Montessori, Linbro Park, and take great pleasure in enclosing herewith our prospectus for your perusal.

The magical splendour of the school can only be truly appreciated in the flesh, so to speak. We therefore encourage you to schedule an appointment with the registrar, Adam Darby, who will explain the Montessori method and general school operations in detail; and give you a tour of our magnificent grounds and facilities. In the event that you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to meeting you.

Kind regards,

PATRICIA DARBY

1. Maria Montessori & The Montessori Method

Detailed information on Maria Montessori, the Montessori method and the differences between Montessori and traditional education, can be found on our website (www.montessoriint.com).

2. Admission Policy

- Discrimination is against South African law. Pupils and staff are appointed on merit. The school's ethos is rooted in the belief that all people, regardless of race, colour, language, creed and gender, are of equal worth and are treated equally in the selection for, and in the general operation of the school.
- Primary school applicants and applicants with special needs or barriers to learning may be required to spend a day or two in the classroom in order for the teacher to assess their academic, social and emotional level.
- Where selection becomes necessary because the number of applicants exceeds the number of available places, selection is based on the following criteria:
 - Preference will be given to applicants who have submitted the application form and accompanying documentation, and paid the admission fees (comprised of the registration fee and the deposit).
 - Preference will be given to siblings, except where this is not in the best interest of the child/children.
 - Preference will be given to applicants who have previously attended a Montessori school.
 - The capacity of the school to provide quality education to the applicant. This provision applies particularly to applicants with special needs and barriers to learning.

- School prospectus and application form is emailed.
- Appointment is made with the Registrar (Adam Darby)/Director of Studies (Olivia Darby)/authorised personnel to visit the school.

- Parents of new pupils are welcome to phone the school periodically to establish how their child/children are coping with his/her/their slightly daunting, but incredibly exciting new school adventure.

4. Mission Statement

22. Code of Ethics

The principles and ideas of Montessori on the integrity and needs of children underpin all aspects of the school. Pupils, parents and academic and administrative staff strive to apply these same principles in their work and relationships with each other. All members are expected to act with integrity and dignity and to respect each other.

23. Code of Conduct

In order for us to follow the Montessori method as well as possible we have instilled some ground rules. Ground rules protect the rights and liberty of each individual child and the group as a whole. They promote the internalisation of good social behaviour and values including: self-control of impulses, consideration for others, a sense of responsibility for oneself and the welfare of the group. Ground rules can help to make life at school easier, make the days run more smoothly, enable children to be more independent and help to develop responsibility. The number of ground rules are generally kept to a minimum, stated and presented in a positive manner with the emphasis on safety, respect for others and the environment and the results benefit all members of the group.

The children are made aware of behaviour which is acceptable and that which is not. Issues arising between children are always discussed with them first, failing which, the time-out method (“The Thinking Chair”) has proved successful in the Preschool. Parents will be called in to discuss discipline problems if need be. If a disciplinary problem does arise, it is dealt with individually, keeping the child’s self-esteem in mind at all times.

Please make yourself and your child/children aware of the following general conduct rules:

Children are required to:

- arrive at school on time;
- treat others with respect and dignity;
- look after their own belongings;
- pick up their own litter;
- stay within the allocated areas in the playground;
- respect classrooms and equipment;
- adhere to classroom rules;
- replace equipment that they break;
- never throw sand, stones or sticks; and
- never threaten any other person physically or verbally, use racist, offensive or derogatory language, harass another person, bully or steal.

Primary School Code of Conduct Agreement

A detailed code of conduct to be adopted by the primary school children can be found in the Application Form (‘Primary School: Code of Conduct Agreement’), which must be signed by primary school pupils and their parents and submitted with the remaining registration documentation.

Primary School pupils must agree to:

Primary Children Discipline Procedure

Level 1: Verbal Warning

The teacher issuing the verbal warning will hand the child a verbal warning slip, which the child needs to take home and ask a parent to sign. Verbal warning slips will be kept on file. Three verbal warnings for the same offence will lead to a written warning.

Level 2: Written warning

A written warning will be given to the pupil to take home for a parent's signature and the teacher involved will contact the parents.

Level 3: disciplinary hearing

When serious offences are committed and verbal/written warnings are inadequate, the school will hold a disciplinary meeting before a decision is taken on what action should be imposed, which could result in suspension or expulsion.

29. Testimonial – A Pupil’s Perspective

Past pupil, David Diack, attended the school between the ages of three and twelve. At the beginning of 2011, David embarked upon his secondary schooling at St. Benedict School, an exclusive private school in Pinetown, KZN, where he is currently reportedly flourishing. We take great pride in presenting the following charming letter to the school from David, which encapsulates his thoughts on the school, his teacher and how his pre-primary and primary education prepared him for his future.

10th November 2010

I started going to Yvonne’s Montessori school when I turned three. I loved it from the word ‘go’. There was so just so much to learn, and the classroom was a very interesting place for me.

I was so lucky to be in the Montessori school until I turned twelve, and then I had to say goodbye. But it prepared me so well for high school. I think my general knowledge is excellent because I was taught so many different things in great detail.

Montessori teachers taught me how to respect myself, my friends and other people. At Montessori we talk things through when we have problems. We all have a voice and this makes us feel unique and special so we learn how to deal with problems and people in a civilised way.

It also taught me how important it is to respect the smallest little animal or plant.

What a pity the whole world cannot receive a Montessori education. The Modern Montessori school is the greatest, and Yvonne is the best teacher I ever had. I will never forget her. When I think of the school it feels like home.

Thank you.

David Diack (13 years old)
